Description

A wonderfully flamboyant pair of French gilt theatrical armchairs, dating from the 1920s and brimming with stage-worthy glamour. These chairs capture the exuberance of early 20th-century decorative style, with boldly carved frames finished in warm, time-softened gilding that catches the light beautifully. The seats are upholstered in a rich rose-toned fabric with deep buttoning to the backs, adding texture and a touch of opulence. Generously padded arms and elegant cabriole legs complete the silhouette, giving the chairs a confident, luxurious presence. Originally created for theatrical or decorative use, they have that irresistible blend of drama and charm—perfect as accent chairs, boutique-style statement pieces, or photogenic props in creative interiors. They bring instant character to any room and are ideal for those who love French design with a playful, glamorous twist. A striking and highly decorative pair with real personality.
