Description

Antique 20th century chest of drawers in burr walnut, a very well-made and good quality piece showcasing exceptionally rich grain and striking figuring throughout. The drawer fronts and top are beautifully cross-banded, enhancing the depth and visual appeal of the walnut and giving the piece a refined decorative presence. The chest features five drawers in total, all retaining their original decorative brass handles, which complement the warmth and elegance of the timber. The proportions are pleasing and practical, offering useful storage while maintaining a sophisticated and timeless look. Raised on bracket feet, the piece has a solid and traditional stance that perfectly suits its period character. Presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable and attractive example of burr walnut furniture — a beautiful statement piece and a perfect addition to any home.
