Description

We are delighted to offer this stunning antique Edwardian amethyst necklace made c.1900. The necklace presents a wonderful array of substantially-sized and various-shaped amethysts set with a 9ct antique gold backing and chain. The amethysts are matched well and tastefully selected with round, oval and pear cuts that accentuate the wearer's neck and create an elegant symmetry, terminating in a single point. Its chainwork allows for each amethyst to move around, and its overall design creates a very fluid, natural and unrestricted appearance. The bottom portion is suspended and comes particularly to life upon wearing with the movement of the freely moving parts in full effect. Furthermore, its intricate craftsmanship and fine mounts lends itself well to accentuate the amethysts, allowing them to glisten in their best light. Elegant, tasteful and opulent, it would most certainly grace a shirt in the summer or on top of a jumper in the cooler seasons and is a lovely way to display your passion for fine antiques and exquisite jewellery, distinguished from contemporary pieces. A very special gift to a lucky individual or as an indulgent gift for yourself, bound to be a c...
