Description

Edwardian Mahogany Display Cabinet – Glazed China / Curio Cabinet – c.1900–1910 A charming and elegant Edwardian bow front display cabinet dating from the early 20th century, beautifully crafted in mahogany and of slim, refined proportions. The cabinet features a glazed Bowfront door with decorative moulded surround and shaped detailing, with a working lock and keyopening to reveal three display shelves. The interior is lined in a vibrant green fabric, providing a striking contrast and an ideal backdrop for silver, porcelain, glassware, or collectibles. The shaped top pediment adds further period character, while the cabinet stands gracefully on slender tapered legs with spade feet. The bowed glass front enhances both visibility and elegance, making this an attractive yet practical piece for displaying treasured items without taking up too much floor space.
