Description

A charming early 19th century country-made stool, with a single-board rectangular elm seat retaining a warm, well-worn surface, raised on turned, splayed ash legs with small bulb feet, united by a turned stretcher base. Proportioned at perch height, this is a practical Georgian stool with an honest country character, ideal as a hall stool, dressing room perch or occasional fireside seat. Very good antique condition with some attractive surface wear and patination consistent with age. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place. English, early 19th century. H: 55 W: 40 D: 40 cm Seat - W: 32.5 D: 26.5 cm
