Description

An exceptionally rare, possibly unique oversized Camphor wood campaign or Military trunk of perfect dimensions for a coffee table. This Fine quality 19th century chest is constructed of beautiful pale camphorwood with brass fittings including original large carrying handles and two original and working locks with original keys. In over forty years of dealing in English antique furniture I have never seen one of these proportions! In very good used condition with lovely antique surface including minor knocks and bumps appropriate to age and use.
