Description

A lovely Italian silver-plated bronze sculpture of a shepherd boy and a lamb mounted on a polished marble plinth, circa 1880 in date. The shepherd is dressed in classical Italian peasant costume with his lamb by his side on a rocky outcrop signed A. G. T. A shepherd is a protective, guiding figure often depicted in pastoral art and religious imagery as carrying a vulnerable or lost lamb, symbolizing compassion and tender care. The craftsmanship is second to none throughout all aspects of this beautiful sculpture. Condition: In excellent condition, please see photos for confirmation.
