Description

This is a beautiful antique French Napoleon III ebonized and cut brass marquetry red Boulle pier cabinet, circa 1860 in date. This cabinet is ebonised and decorated with exquisite ormolu mounts. It has a glazed door and a profusely decorated frieze. The door is flanked by pristine ormolu caryatids and the red velvet lined interior has two shelves. It has been beautifully french polished and stands on an elegant plinth base. There is no mistaking the unique quality and design, which is certain to make it a talking point in your home. Condition: In really excellent condition having only been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 107 cm x Width 90 cm x Depth 40 cm. Dimensions in inches: Height 3 foot, 6 inches x Width 2 foot, 11 inches x Depth 1 foot, 4 inches. André-Charles Boulle (1642 – 1732), was the French cabinetmaker who is generally considered to be the preeminent artist in the field of marquetry. His fame in marquetry led to his name being given to a fashion of inlaying known as Boulle (or in 19th-century Britain, Buhl work). Boulle appears to have been originally a painter, since ...
