Description

A good example of an antique silver cased pocket pen knife. The silver case has nicely engraved detail and it has two folding steel blades. It is hallmarked for William Needham, Sheffield, 1919. It is in good condition for its age. There are some faint surface marks, a few small dinks and some tarnish and minor corrosion on the blades but no major damages and it displays well. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use.
