Description

A late 19th century French cupboard with a large single door featuring a panel carved with an urn, foliage and grapes, and a full width drawer above. The cupboard has panelled sides and further carved details to the drawer front, and has bun feet at the front with block feet to the rear. A useful and attractive piece of furniture. I have seen similar styles of cupboard referred to as 'jam cupboards' - I'm not sure if that's what this is, but a cupboard just for jam is a nice idea! Condition: There is a discoloured area on the bottom moulding along the front of the cupboard, and also on the same moulding but at the back on the right hand side - there is a small amount of paint splatter here as well that didn't want to come off! Please see the photos. Some ink stains to the top. Otherwise very good condition with minor surface wear and patina in accordance with age and use. Mainland UK delivery (excluding the Scottish highlands) is included in the price - if you would like a quote for delivery elsewhere, or if you would like to collect the item yourself, please get in touch. Delivery of furniture usually takes between 7 and 21 days from order, though can sometimes take ...
