Description

A stylish small antique Edwardian walnut music cabinet or hall cupboard dating from circa 1910. Originally this piece was designed as a music cabinet, but actually it makes a wonderful hall cupboard for storing items such as slippers/shoes, with its slim stature making it ideal for a hall or porch. It has a lift up top which offers storage space inside and a drop down front with two compartments ideal for slippers, newspapers, magazines etc. With blind fret work decorated front it stands on shaped bracket feet. In good condition, in richly figured walnut.

Construction/Wood: Walnut Condition Report: Good condition. Solid and sturdy with wear and marks commensurate with age. Dimensions: Width: 43cm Depth: 25cm Height: 79cm Top Cabinet Internal: 31cm High x 33cm Wide x 18cm Deep
