Description

A stunning, fine and impressive antique 3.20 carat white opal, 0.25 carat diamond, 18 carat white gold and platinum set ring; part of our diverse opal jewellery collection. This stunning, fine and impressive antique white opal ring has been crafted in 18ct white gold with a platinum setting. The claw setting displays a feature central 3.20ct oval cabochon cut white opal. The pierced decorated, bifurcating ring shoulders are embellished with eighteen pavé set eight cut diamonds, integrating with the main setting and amalgamating to form the plain ring shank. This finely hand crafted, low set ring is hallmarked to the interior of the shank with the platinum mark (PLAT) and 18ct gold mark (18CT). The ring is supplied with an IDGL diamond and gemstone grading report card. This 1920s white opal ring with diamonds in platinum is especially suited to anniversaries, birthdays or meaningful romantic gestures, where its luminous opal and diamond accents create a refined balance of softness and brilliance. Its fine craftsmanship and platinum setting also make it an inspired self-purchase for those drawn to opal gemstones and elegant period design. Images do not always...
