Description

A handsome mahogany bookcase in the Georgian Revival style, combining classical proportions with practical storage. Raised upon a plinth base, the lower section features a pair of paneled doors opening to reveal a single interior shelf. The upper section is fitted with astragal-glazed doors, enclosing three adjustable shelves ideal for books or display. The shaped cornice adds architectural interest and balance to the overall form. Constructed in two sections for ease of transport and installation. Presented in good condition, this elegant bookcase would suit both traditional and contemporary interiors. Size: Height 84" (214cm) Width 46" (117cm) Depth 20" (51cm)
