Description

A handsome set of four vintage dining chairs, crafted in solid wood with elegant curved back rails, shaped splats and turned front legs. The seats are upholstered in a warm golden fabric with a subtle repeating motif, giving the set a classic, refined look that suits both traditional and eclectic interiors. These chairs are well proportioned and comfortable, ideal for everyday dining while still offering plenty of period character. Seat height: 46 cm. Very good vintage condition overall. Light surface wear and small marks to the wooden frames, consistent with age and use. Upholstery presents well, with only minor signs of wear visible in the photographs. All chairs feel solid and stable.
