Description

Pair of Victorian Mahogany 4 Drawer Bowfront Bedside Chests – 19th Century A charming and practical pair of Victorian mahogany bowfront bedside chests, dating from the mid to late 19th century. Elegant in both proportion and design, these compact chests are perfect as bedside tables or occasional storage pieces. Each chest features four smoothly graduated drawers with attractive bowfront shaping, giving them a soft, curved profile typical of the Victorian period. Crafted in warm-toned mahogany, they display a lovely rich colour and pleasing grain throughout, enhanced by a well-developed antique patina. The drawers are fitted with turned wooden knob handles, complementing the simplicity and clean lines of the design. They stand on plinth bases, which add to their solid, balanced appearance.
