Description

A very lovely and early rosewood jewellery box with brass cross banding, a vacant cartouche and a working key. The fitted and lined tray inside has separate compartments for jewellery and rings. The tray may be removed to reveal the lined space below which would accommodate larger pieces of jewellery. The green velvet lining is original and in good condition commensurate with age. I resisted re-lining the box and so gently cleaned the original material. Circa 1800-1820. We can deliver free of charge in UK and can calculate the cost of international delivery. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal or card via telephone.
