Description

An extremely rare late 17th century oak and ash gateleg side table of small proportions with superb patina in original, untouched condition. This table consists of a well figured solid ash top with rounded corners with a single gate which opens up to support the leaf. This leads down to an oak base with a straight front rail, the ends having a shaped rail and all supported by finely turned legs with square rails below and terminating with turned feet. This table is of fine quality and is of original condition, tables such as this are seldom seen on the market in original condition. This table is in very good original condition for age and can go straight into a home or collection. Size: Height: 27.25" / 69cm Width: 29.5" / 75cm Depth: 14" / 35.5cm (closed) 27.75" / 70.5cm (open)
