Description

A superb William IV rosewood side cabinet of impressive quality and fine detail. This striking cabinet stands upon elegant turned feet, supporting a beautifully proportioned body. The pair of doors feature decorative brass grilles lined with silk fabric and are adorned with typical William IV carved detailing to the corners. The doors are flanked by characteristic William IV columns, enriched with carved detail, adding depth and architectural presence. Above, two oak-lined working drawers are fitted with brass ring pull handles, demonstrating quality craftsmanship and practicality. The top is finished with attractive multi-reeded mouldings, further enhancing the cabinet's refined silhouette. A very pretty and highly decorative piece of furniture that would grace any home. Size: Height: 39½" (100 cm) Width: 42" (107 cm) Depth: 22½" (57 cm)
