Description

A Fabulous Victorian Silver Plated Double Rollover Serving Dish crafted with classic beaded edging, turned finials, and delicate engraved foliage - this piece is both a collector's treasure and a stunning functional centrepiece. This rollover dish has removeable liners and the useful ability to be able to be opened from both sides. The removable inner tray features elegant pierced patterns for draining and ventilation and the lower drip tray keeps juices and moisture contained while food stays elevated and crisp. Marked HA EA FA for Atkin Brothers Truro Works England - circa 1890. * From Family Dinners to Banquets: It's easy to picture the gentle lift of each lid revealing hot roast potatoes or steamed greens served with a bit of ceremony! Measurements: Height: 8" (approx. 20cm) Width: 12" (approx. 30cm) Depth: 9" (approx. 23cm) Total weight: 1770g In good condition - Minor surface wear and light patina appropriate to age. No dents, repairs, or major flaws. A complete set that includes all original parts - double domes, pierced insert, and base liner.
