Description

This is a fantastic Georgian solid sterling silver entrée dish. The base is hallmarked for London 1795 and the maker's mark, whilst slightly rubbed, is discernible for Thomas Robins. It is a solid 769g. The 'Flap' handles feature angels with wings and carry partial hallmarks and are in themselves 50mm thick. There are surface abrasions to the inside and bottom of the base. The fabulously decorated lid carries the sterling mark. It weighs 444g. The finial is unmarked and fits well. The lid is decorated fantastically with angels and dragons. Both pieces are numbered '4'. Dimensions: Diameter: 25cm Height: 15cm Weight: 1,213g. Post and packaging are free within the UK. Overseas buyers please e-mail for postage costs and please note: Import duties, taxes, and charges are not included in the item price or shipping cost. These charges are the buyer's responsibility. Please check with your country's customs office to determine what these additional costs will be prior to buying.
