Description

Here we have a lovely antique miniature gilt bronze and Champlevé Enamel framed strut easel clock with a pretty painted scene to the center of the dial. The clock is retailed by the renowned 'The Goldsmith and Silversmith Co Ltd 112 Regents St. W'. This beautiful miniature easel clock has a wonderful gilt bronze frame with a nicely shaped and edge and detailed with Champlevé Enamel. The gilt chapter ring is set out with Arabic numerals and to the bottom is reads '8 DAYS SWISS MADE' with the center having a lovely painted scene. Below the dial is signed 'The Goldsmith and Silversmith Co Ltd 112 Regents St. W'. This large business of retail jewellers and silversmiths was established in 1880 at 112 Regent Street. The original partners were William Gibson and John Lawrence Langman. Following the absorption in 1893 of the Goldsmiths' Alliance Ltd, the Goldsmiths & Silversmiths Co was covered into a limited liability company. In 1952 the company was amalgamated with Garrard & Co. The back of the frame then has a shaped stand with folds out so that the clock stands correctly. The movement is then wound and adjusted from the back and is happily ticking away. The back also has...
