Description

An elegant pair of antique French Louis XV Revival serpentine bois de roi, walnut and ormolu mounted bedside chests, circa 1870 in date. The pair of cabinets are free standing with stunning Rouge Griotte marble tops above a serpentine fronted drawers with two dummy drawers below that open as a door to reveal a striking marble interior. They feature their original patinated bronze handles and mounts with superb bois de roi and walnut banding. The cabinets are raised on swept legs with classic escargot feet. Add an elegant touch to your home with these lovely bedside chests. Condition: In excellent condition having only been beautifully cleaned and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 85 cm x Width 45 cm x Depth 41 cm Dimensions in inches: Height 2 foot, 9 inches x Width 1 foot, 6 inches x Depth 1 foot, 4 inches Griotte marble - is named after the griotte cherry because of its remarkable bright red colour. The more red the marble, the higher quality it is. When the marble contains many goniatis full of white calcite the marble is called "Partridge eye". The quarries, still active today, are in the Hérault region...
