Description

This is a beautiful antique George III mahogany extending dining table, circa 1810 in date. This amazing table can seat sixteen people in comfort and has been hand-crafted from beautiful solid Cuban flame mahogany. The beautifully figured flame mahogany top is oval shaped and has four leaves which can be added or removed as required to suit the occasion. The leaves can be easily removed and stored away when not required. The table is raised on six hand carved turned and reeded tapering legs that terminate in brass and white porcelain cup castors that give the table it's stability. The chairs shown in the photographs are not included in the price but are available if required, we have various sets of chairs in stock that would suit this table. This stunning dining table will stand out in your dining or conference room and will become a key piece in your furnishing collection. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
