Description

These large and very impressive pair of Japanese blue and white porcelain vases stand at an impressive height of 58 inches, showcasing the timeless elegance of Chinoiserie design. Each vase features intricate lacquered scenes that reflect classical artistry, adorned with vibrant colors and detailed depictions of nature and mythical creatures. The exquisite craftsmanship is highlighted by the contrasting blue-and-white motifs, which harmoniously blend with the rich lacquered elements. Each vase is mounted on its original hexagonal wooden base, enhancing stability while also adding a touch of sophistication. The overall aesthetic captures the essence of traditional Japanese art, making these vases not just decorative pieces, but also significant cultural artifacts. Ideal for showcasing in a prominent space, they serve as captivating conversation starters and treasured collectibles for enthusiasts of Asian art and design. Professional Museum restoration has been carried out on each of the vases. Batch 85 63066 SSKZN C/C
