Description

Antique 20th century good quality sideboard in oak, a very well-made and finely crafted example. The sideboard features three drawers to the upper section above three cupboard doors to the base, each enclosing a single shelf across the middle, offering practical storage while maintaining elegant proportions. The piece retains all of its original handles and fittings and is beautifully carved across the front, showcasing excellent craftsmanship and attention to detail. Stood on sturdy square legs, the oak displays gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout, enhancing its decorative and functional appeal. Presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable example – both stylish and practical, making it a perfect addition to any home. Product Reference : AF - 5240
