Description

Antique 19th century Victorian Green Man desk in oak, a very well-made and finely crafted example of period furniture. The desk features 11 drawers in total, arranged as five on either side with a central drawer, all adorned with beautifully carved Green Man face handles, showcasing remarkable craftsmanship and attention to detail. A finely carved frieze adorns the upper section, and the desk is finished with a striking green leather writing surface, providing both elegance and practicality. The piece stands on a solid plinth base, giving it a strong and commanding presence. The oak displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, further highlighting its quality and decorative appeal. This high-quality desk is presented in great condition. It is a very desirable and rare example that must be seen in person to be fully appreciated. Please note that it is one solid piece and does not come apart. Perfect as a statement piece, functional workspace, or collector's item, making it a perfect addition to any home.
