Description

Antique 18th century good quality writing table in mahogany, a finely crafted and elegant example of period furniture. Very well made and of good quality, the table features a large single drawer to the front, fitted with beautiful brass handles that enhance both functionality and style. The piece stands on tapered legs, offering a graceful and balanced silhouette while ensuring sturdy support. The mahogany displays a gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, highlighting the natural beauty and quality of the timber. Presented in good condition, this writing table is a very desirable example — practical, stylish, and perfect for use as a desk or occasional table. A timeless addition to any home, combining solid construction, classic design, and enduring appeal.
