Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian bureau in oak, a very well made and attractive piece of good quality craftsmanship. The bureau features a nicely fitted interior to the upper section, complete with a key, providing a practical and charming workspace with useful storage compartments. Below are two drawers to the centre, both retaining their original handles and offering additional storage while preserving the piece's authentic character. The bureau is raised on classic barley twist legs with a supporting stretcher, giving it a strong presence and traditional decorative appeal. The oak displays a gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout, adding natural character and depth to the piece. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable example that would serve as both a functional and decorative addition to any home.
