Description

A magnificent Victorian mahogany extending dining table of exceptional quality featuring ball and claw feet and superior carved details throughout. Ball and claw feet on all four legs - finely carved traditional eagle talon motif requiring considerable skill and expense. Reserved for superior quality furniture. Deeply carved acanthus leaf brackets at top of each leg. Continuous gadrooned (rope-twist) molding hand-carved around entire top edge circumference. This level of carved decoration is characteristic of high-quality Victorian furniture for wealthy households. Dimensions Height: 73cm | Closed (round): 123cm diameter | Extended : 249cm length | 123cm width | Seats: 4-6 closed, 8-10 extended Condition Note: Excellent for 140+ years. Mahogany displays rich color and patina. Ball and claw feet retain crisp definition. Acanthus brackets show fine detail. Gadrooned molding well-preserved. Extending mechanism smooth. All three leaves present and matching. Table top shows minor age-consistent marks. Structure solid. Ready to use immediately.
