Description

A charming antique Edwardian mahogany side table of elegant proportions. the table stands on four square tapering legs and features a rectangular top above three drawers — two smaller drawers over one long drawer. The drawer fronts are decorated with contrasting inlaid banding typical of the Edwardian period. Each drawer is fitted with brass ring handles. A practical and decorative piece. Item Reference: M-6722 . Dimensions: Height – 73.5cm/ Width - 76cm/ Depth - 44.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: Presented in good antique condition, commensurate with age and use, with a rich, deep patina to the mahogany. There are surface marks, light scratches, and some wear to the top, along with minor knocks to the legs and edges. The inlay remains largely intact with only slight wear. The drawers run smoothly. Overall, a solid and attractive Edwardian table, ready for practical use.
