Description

1914, Giuseppe Moretti (1859-1935), Bronze Bust of a Bearded Gentleman (Italian) Signed and dated 1914 on the reverse. CONDITION: Wear commensurate with age. PROVENANCE: From the private collection of a Gentleman in Somerset, United Kingdom. ABOUT GIUSEPPE MORETTI: Giuseppe Moretti (1857 – 1935) was an Italian émigré sculptor who became known in the U.S. for his public monuments in bronze and marble. On a personal level, Moretti was known for his eclectic personality and for always wearing a green tie, but professionally, is claimed to be the first man to use aluminium in art. From 1911 to 1914, Moretti lived in Cuba on his greatest achievement, the completion of ninety-seven sculptures for the Gran Teatro de La Habana. This bronze was sculpted while Moretti was working in Cuba. WEBSITE: For more information or more detailed images, please, visit our website: <https://www.WhiteSpaceAntiques.com>
