Description

Circa 1890 - 1910, Rare, Faraday & Son, Bronze Floor Lamp (English) This heavy cast bronze, arts and crafts floor lamp, stamped F&S for Faraday & Son, is a superb example, with a hexagonal upright and subtle detailing, which leads up to the trademark Faraday switched top with brass lamp holder. Wired with black twisted flex.

CONDITION: Wear commensurate with age. Fabulous patina. HISTORY OF FARADAY & SON: Faraday & Son was a renowned London-based firm specialising in high-quality brass gas and electric lighting, founded by Robert Faraday - brother of scientist Michael Faraday - in the early 19th century. Renowned for Art Nouveau and Arts and Crafts styles, they produced fixtures like chandeliers, sconces, and Pullman lamps before merging in 1919.

COLLECTION: Buyer must collect, or arrange collection, from Westbury, Wiltshire.
