Description

A striking 8-point whitetail deer shoulder mount, set on a shaped wooden backboard. The buck displays a well-formed set of eight symmetrical antler points, characteristic of a mature whitetail. The taxidermy work retains a natural, lifelike expression, with good definition around the eyes, muzzle, and coat. The mount is secured to a dark wooden shield-shaped plaque, with the reverse showing keyhole hanger. It's a noble, striking piece of taxidermy, executed with real skill. An eye-catching focal point, it would sit brilliantly in a large reception room, lodge, restaurant or pub, bringing character and presence to any interior.
