Description

Late C18th Italian Florentine design carved giltwood framed mirror of larger scale and proportions. The well-carved gilded wooden frame with extensive scrolling leaf detail, retaining its original burnished gilding and enclosing the original silvered mirror plate. The design of the carving being typical of the Florentine style with deeply carved symmetrical detail to the rectangular frame. A highly decorative carved frame mirror in exceptional excellent original condition, with a pleasing and atmospheric mellow surface to the gilding. The verso having its original oak backboards and bearing an interesting old paper label referring to the mirror as a bequest. H 40" W 29" D 3" Italy, Florence c.1790
