Description

A beautiful and very striking Art Deco rosewood occasional side table. This was made in England, it dates from the 1930's. It is of superb quality, with a very useful design. It is perfect for use as a side / console table, with lots of storage space for books and objects. This is finished identically front and back, so this can be used as a free standing item. The rosewood has a beautiful colour tone and wonderful grain patterns. We have had this stripped and re-polished to a very high standard, the condition is superb throughout. Width – 91 cm , 36 inches Depth – 50 cm , 20 inches Height – 60 cm , 24 inches
