Description

A superb antique display cabinet featuring exquisite marquetry and floral inlay, dating from the late. Crafted from rich mahogany with contrasting satinwood and fruitwood veneers, this piece beautifully showcases the artistry and craftsmanship of its era. The upper section displays a glazed door with an arched pediment, enclosing glass shelves and a deep red velvet interior—ideal for presenting fine glassware or collectibles. Below, a single cupboard door is adorned with intricate floral and urn motifs, framed by delicate scrolling borders. Standing gracefully on shaped bracket feet, this cabinet combines decorative refinement with practical storage. The patina and warm tones of the wood enhance its timeless appeal, making it a striking focal point in any traditional or eclectic interior. Dimensions: Height 105.5 cm (41.53 in) Width 83 cm 932.68 in) Depth 48 cm (18.90 in) Sides from back to front 59.5 cm (23.42 in) Dated 1800
