Description

This superb large pottery sculpture is hand modelled in clay, fired in a kiln with a rich reddish glaze and shaded detailing. It depicts a pair of young owls sitting together waiting for a parent to return to feed them. The sculpture is very well modelled with great detailing of the feathers and features. It is initialled S W 1934 on the underside and is presented on its original handmade ebonised base, especially fitted to take the sculpture. This lovely sculpture is a pleasing piece in good condition with no restoration. English, circa 1934 Sizes including the stand Height 20cm x width 39cm x depth 23cm Free UK mainland delivery
