Description

A solid oak rocking armchair with traditional turned spindles, shaped arms and classic curved rockers. Upholstered in original deep green velvet with buttoned backrest and matching arm pads, finished with decorative braid trim. The chair has a high supportive back and retains its original loose lumbar cushion, making it both comfortable and decorative. A well proportioned and sturdy piece ideal for a reading corner, fireside setting or period style interior. The oak frame has a rich warm tone and attractive grain throughout. The rocking action is smooth and stable. Seat Height: 43 cm Very good vintage condition. Structurally solid. Upholstery clean and well preserved with light signs of use consistent with age. Original cushions intact. No loose joints. Rockers function correctly.
