Description

A Victorian Moorish occasional table, the top carved with radiating geometric decoration, set over arched panels with foliate carving and mother of pearl inlaid star motifs, all raised on gently splayed shaped legs united by a lower tier. With proportions likely intended for a lamp or display table, its narrow footprint and open form make it ideal beside an armchair, placed in a corner or as a small hall accent, with the carving reading particularly well under lamplight. Very good antique condition with some surface wear consistent with age and some losses to the inlay. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place. Late 19th century. H: 78 W: 42 D: 41 cm
