Description

A set of four Victorian dining chairs with richly carved frames and newly upholstered seats, offering a confident blend of period craftsmanship and contemporary decorative flair. The dark, sculptural timber work—full of scrolls, foliage and Victorian exuberance—provides a strong architectural backbone, while the fresh linen-style fabric introduces lightness and modernity. The seats are finished with a decorative tassel braid, adding a playful, textural edge that lifts the whole ensemble. The fabric is the story of exotic monkeys. This contrast between the refined 19th-century frames and the lively, updated upholstery creates a perfect juxtaposition: heritage and modern design working together to give the chairs individuality and character. They make a superb statement around a dining table, but are equally striking used as occasional chairs in hallways, bedrooms or eclectic interiors where craftsmanship and personality are appreciated. A distinctive and highly decorative set that brings both history and freshness into a room. Delivery can be arranged. Please contact me for further details.
