Description

A fine Georgian mahogany inlaid sideboard of elegant proportions and classic late 18th-century design. Raised upon square tapered legs terminating in spade feet, the sideboard displays refined form and balanced symmetry. It is fitted with two oak-lined drawers and a cupboard, offering practical storage. The decoration is particularly attractive, featuring inlaid quarter fans, satinwood crossbanding, and delicate boxwood line inlays throughout. The top is centred with a beautifully executed inlaid fan and further enhanced with satinwood crossbanding, creating a striking focal point. The cupboard, positioned to the left-hand side, is traditionally intended for the storage of used plates during service, reflecting the practical design of the period. Presented in good overall condition, this is a decorative and functional example of Georgian craftsmanship. Size: height 36" (91cm) Width 60" (152cm) Depth 27 1/2" (70cm)
