Description

A handsome Georgian oak bureau bookcase of traditional form and excellent practical design. The piece stands upon bracket feet and features an arrangement of four graduated drawers, each fitted with brass swan-neck handles, offering both functionality and classic period detailing. The fall-front opens to reveal a well-fitted interior, providing useful compartments for writing and storage. The upper section is enclosed by two panelled doors, which open to reveal three small drawers and adjustable shelving, all beneath a decorative dentil cornice. The whole piece is enhanced with attractive marquetry inlays, adding refinement and visual interest. Constructed in two sections for ease of transport and placement, this bureau bookcase is presented in good overall condition. Size: Height 83" (211cm) Width 40" (102cm) Depth 21" (53cm)
