Description

A small original bronze by F Thiermann of a whistling boy with his hands in his pockets. It is mounted on the original marble plinth and signed. In good original condition. F. Thiermann was a German sculptor active around the turn of the 20th century (late 19th–early 20th century), known for producing, often signed, bronze figures. His work commonly features figurative subjects, including Roman warriors, nude women, and young boys, frequently mounted on marble plinths. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland.
