Description

Edwardian oak monks bench This Edwardian oak monks bench is a good example of a hall bench. Having a carved edge to the top that slides into place to make a table if required. In place in your home, it will become a much loved and admired piece, with the very useful locker seat, that lifts to reveal ample storage space for boots and shoes, also allowing you to have a seat while you are putting on footwear. These are versatile as they can be used for other uses, we have placed them in homes to be used to sit a television or music system. This Edwardian oak monks bench has a lovely nut colour and good patina. Imagine this in your home and the pleasure it will give you and your family.
