Description

A substantial Edwardian mahogany glazed side cabinet of elegant form. The upper frieze is decorated with delicate satinwood inlay, featuring a central oval patera flanked by finely executed swag detailing. The cabinet is fitted with a pair of astragal glazed doors, complete with working lock and key. The glass is divided into neat panes by slender mahogany glazing bars, with all panes intact. The interior comprises one fixed shelf. The piece is raised on a plinth base. Overall, a handsome example. Item Reference: M-6716 . Dimensions: Height – 94.5cm/ Width - 153cm/ Depth - 51cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition overall, showing age-related wear consistent with age and use. There is a crack to the left-hand side panel and some surface staining, including marks and scratches, particularly to the back of the shaped gallery. Minor marks, scratches and general wear are present throughout. The inlay remains intact and displays well. Overall, a lovely piece.
