Description

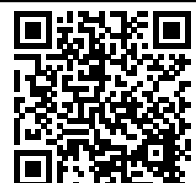

This 19thC Good Quality Walnut Umbrella Stick Stand would make a very welcome addition to a hallway, making an instant impression to visitors. Standing on turned bun feet, with generous mouldings to the top and bottom. The beautifully made cooper constructed main body, has a finely worked decorative bead to the edge of each individual strip. Lined with a metal container to contain any drips for added practicality. Constructed of good-sized timber the piece is of a good weight that contributes to excellent stability. The walnut, which this piece is made from in the solid, has mellowed to a lovely warm hue. A very practical, lovingly made piece of furniture to enhance any area of the home in which it is placed. Presented in particularly good, restored condition.
