Description

A fine Bow porcelain figure depicting Winter from the series "The Seated Rustic Seasons". A hooded gentleman sat on a log warming his hands over a brazier, set on a raised, scrolled base, applied with small, berried shrubs. Decorated in lovely light and bright enamels, highlighted with gilding. Marked with a small anchor and dagger to one side of the base, c.1765. Reference: Bow Porcelain Figures by Bradshaw, figure 208. It measures 16.5cm (6 1/2") high and 11cm (4 1/4") wide and 9cm (3 1/2") deep. In excellent condition with no damage or repairs. Some very minor professional restoration to the outer edge of one of the back feet. From manufacture, some very fine hairlines to the base, only superficial and due to the thickness of the clay and minor stress contractions during firing. Very minor handling wear to both enamels and gilding; a lovely example.
