Description

Hi I have for sale a very small but heavy solid gilded bronze/ormolu mantle clock with stunning gilded extras made in France around 1860 , this is a very rare style mantle clock in very good original condition with a boy riding a chariot pulled by a large bird the whole clock is a really a heavy piece of art with a mint white dial, moon hands and with an old movement with outside count wheel striking on a small sweet bell this clock would have cost a small fortune when new , this clock has come direct from the original owners estate so fresh to the market. The Case The case is in solid brass/ormolu with a solid marble base , this beautiful clock stands 28cm high x 26cm wide with a depth of 9cm. To the rear is a signature of the maker. The Dial The dial is in original condition in white porcelain housed within with a heavy gilded brass ring, the clock also retains its original blued steel moon hands. The Movement The movement is an eight day time and strike , which strikes the hours and halves via a small bell to the rear a nice crisp sound, the movement has been fully serviced so keeping great time over the eight days via the original pendulum. The movement is signed by...
