Description

Hi I have for sale a walnut/nut wood and gilded mantle clock made in France around 1890-1920s in very good original condition. The Case The case is in solid walnut and stands 40cm high x 20cm wide with a depth of 16cm it is in very good original condition very well looked after and has been waxed regularly over its life time , standing on gilded feet and the dial covered in a convex glass brass bezel. The Dial The dial is porcelain with the Roman numerals, with the black spade type hands which are all original to this very old clock. The dial is signed by the retailer. The Movement The movement is an eight day time and strike , it strikes the halves and on the hour , the clock runs for eight days, via a pendulum. The clock runs fine and the original key is present. Overall a beautiful mantle clock that looks great on display keeping good time and looking even better. The photos do not do justice to this beautiful old clock. I will post worldwide.
