Description

A very pretty early 20th century period inlaid satinwood side table. Very well constructed in attractive satinwood veneers onto a solid mahogany carcas and with solid oak drawer linings. Embellished with ebony stringing inlay and satinwood cross banding throughout. Further decorated with lovely hand painted floral swags and garlands. With a single drawer to the front and with convex ends. Surmounted by the original solid brass gallery. All standing on square tapering legs which terminate in spade feet and are united by an under-tier. This table is of good proportions and would sit well in a number of different room scenarios within the modern home. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops and now offered for sale in very good condition with a great colour and patina. Dimensions: Width 110cms Depth 50cms Overall height 124cms Height to front 104cms
